

Tech

Technical Data

80 Metcalfe Street
Buffalo, New York 14206
716-856-2300/fax 716-856-7115

Sodium Percarbonate

GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

Sodium Percarbonate is a combination of sodium carbonate and hydrogen peroxide. It has a granular structure that provides a stable source of alkaline hydrogen peroxide. This product is environmentally friendly and easy to use.

APPLICATIONS:

- ◆ Oxidant: cleaning, bleaching, stain removal, and use as a deodorant
- ◆ Laundry detergents
- ◆ Textile & Wood bleaching
- ◆ Food bleaching applications
- ◆ Carpet Cleaning

PHYSICAL PROPERTIES:

- ◆ Appearance: Granular/ Powder
- ◆ Color: White
- ◆ Free-flowing
- ◆ pH of 1% solution: 10.5-10.6

STORAGE & HANDLING

Storage: Sodium Percarbonate should be stored in a dry location away from heat and out of direct sunlight in containers fitted with a vent. The temperature should not exceed 104°F.

Handling: This product should be handled with care and unused material should never be returned to storage container.

For more detail about product handling & safety info, please refer to the Material Safety Data Sheet